

Conversation Starters

Sometimes social situations can feel difficult if you are not practiced at them, or if you are feeling anxious.

It can make it easier to ask other people questions, to take the spotlight off you! It could also be helpful to answer the questions yourself so that you have something prepared when someone asks you.

Remember its ok to say 'I don't know' or 'I've not thought about that' or 'I'm not comfortable answering that'

Here are some questions that you could have in mind when meeting with people in a social situation. Most of them are considered 'small talk', but some of the topics can lead to deeper conversations.

Ice Breakers

- Where did you grow up?
- Do you have any pets?
- Do you have any siblings?
